

SOIL HEALTH FIELD DAY KATHERINE

THURSDAY 2 FEBRUARY

1.30PM-4.30PM

☕ Afternoon tea provided

Free event. Registration is required

LONESOME DUCK

8529-8561 STUART HIGHWAY, COSSACK

The field day will centre around an informal, open-table discussion with Dr Oliver Knox about soil and improving soil health. It will also provide an opportunity for participants from the “Soil your Undies” challenge to bring their exhumed underwear and discuss their results.

Field day hosts Jeremy and Amy Trembath will also conduct a farm walk and talk to discuss soil health practices, including; multispecies pasture, groundcover and no-till farming.

This field day is open to anyone interested in soil health and biology.

Guest Speaker

Dr Oliver Knox, Senior Lecturer Soil Systems at the University of New England, New South Wales.
